

please protect New Jersey's do not call list as it is currently structured. I encourage greater protections against all unsolicited calls, including political advertisements and automated calls.

Rob mcceney